

GLOBAL SANCTIONS POLICY

1. Introduction

1.1 As a company, we are committed to carrying on business in accordance with the highest ethical standards. This includes complying with all applicable trade sanctions regulations (“Sanctions Laws”) in the countries in which we operate. This Policy has been developed by MOTIFY INC. (“MOTIFY”) to help employees and contractors understand where issues related to sanctions regulations may arise and to support them in making the right decisions in line with our corporate position as stated in this Policy.

1.2 The management of MOTIFY is committed to complying with all laws. Any employee who violates the rules in this Policy or who permits anyone to violate those rules may be subject to appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal, and may be subject to personal civil or criminal fines.

1.3 If you have any questions about this Policy you should contact the Legal or Compliance Department.

2. Policy Statement on Sanctions

2.1 It is MOTIFY's policy to comply with all Sanctions Laws in our operations worldwide. To this end, MOTIFY will comply with all economic and trade sanctions applicable to our business activities.

2.2 This Policy is intended to help employees, contractors, and other third parties acting on the company's behalf to understand where breaches of Sanctions Laws might arise and to support them in making the right decisions in line with our corporate position as stated in this Policy.

3. Board endorsement

3.1 The Board of MOTIFY will not criticize management for any loss of business resulting from adherence to this Policy. No employee or contractor will suffer as a consequence of bringing to the attention of the Board or senior management, in good faith, a known or suspected breach of this Policy.

4. Subject of this Policy

4.1 This Policy applies to MOTIFY's operations globally, including all legal entities worldwide owned or controlled by MOTIFY (including all group companies), and to all directors, officers, employees, contractors, and other third parties acting on behalf of the foregoing.

5. Types of the Risk

5.1 Violations of Sanctions Laws may lead to severe civil and/or criminal penalties against companies and individuals, including significant monetary fines, imprisonment, extradition, blacklisting, revocation of licenses, and disqualification of directors.

5.2 In addition, violations of Sanctions Laws can lead to damaging practical consequences, including harm to reputation and commercial relationships, restrictions in the way we can do business, and extensive time and cost in conducting internal investigations and/or defending against government investigations and enforcement actions.

6. Sanctions

6.1 Sanctions are the regulatory restrictions applicable to dealings with certain countries/territories, governments, groups, entities, individuals, or controlled goods or services. The nature and extent of these restrictions may vary (i.e. limitations on import/export, controls on specific goods and services, restrictions on financial operations, etc.).

6.2 The following are some examples of countries/territories and groups that have been the target of economic trade sanctions: Crimea, Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Syria, narcotics traffickers, Weapons of Mass Destruction Proliferation, human rights abusers, and terrorists, among others. This list is not exhaustive and may be supplemented.

7. Means of compliance with sanctions

7.1 All MOTIFY employees and contractors must be aware of and follow c to their countries and or business-related activities. The potential restrictions may be related to:

- enforcing compliance with sanctions on restricted countries/territories;
- enforcing compliance with sanctions on restricted persons/entities;
- reporting any suspicions that could raise concerns about sanctions

8. Red Flags

8.1 MOTIFY employees and contractors shall look out for any red flags or suspicions that may indicate the direct or indirect involvement of a restricted territory, restricted party, controlled item, service, end-use or any other sanctions compliance concern.

8.2 Some examples of red flags to be reported include:

- The customer is reluctant to offer information or clear answers on routine commercial issues (including intended geography of sales, beneficial ownership, or locations of operation);
- The consignee has a different name or location than the customer or ultimate end user;
- The counterparty is evasive about its customers;
- Unusual volume requests compared to the anticipated size of the market;
- Unusually favourable payment terms or large cash payments;
- Any suspicion or evidence to suggest the possible involvement of a Restricted Territory or Restricted Party;

9. Compliance controls

9.1 The responsibility to provide MOTIFY employees and contractors with the necessary information to comply with this Policy falls with Legal, Finance and the General Manager, as below: Legal and Compliance

- Monitor economic trade sanctions regulations and update the business in case of any change.

- Determine and approve controls to be followed in specific regions or types of transaction
- Provide legal advice and guidance on specific situations on request, including on resolution of issues and follow up of red flag
- Assist the business in obtaining necessary and appropriate licences
- Conduct periodic risk assessments in high risk regions and monitor the processes and controls in place.
- Conduct effective training and education to relevant business functions in relation to economic trade sanctions regulations Finance
- Ensure that financial transactions/operations (including contact with financial institutions, usage of certain currency, segregation of funds) are in line with economic trade sanctions regulations, by following approved processes and controls;
- Ensure that all licences are obtained

10. Employee Responsibility

10.1 You have the obligation to read and follow this Policy, to understand and identify any red flags that may arise in your business activities and to escalate potential compliance concerns related to sanctions to the Ethics and Compliance or the Legal Department. You should not take any actions prior to receiving advice and/or instructions.

11. Non-compliance

11.1 Any MOTIFY employee or contractor, who violates this Policy may be subject to appropriate disciplinary action, independently from potential other penalties resulting from their behaviour.

11.2 Internal Audit shall conduct regular checks on local businesses to ensure compliance with Sanctions Laws.

12. Updates, Review and Ownership

12.1 This Policy may be updated from time, and the updated version of the Policy will be immediately made available on the MOTIFY intranet.
